Hello Web Visitor,

Thank you for enquiring about Hilltop Farm. Wooroloo is a small village in Perth's eastern hills, just within the Greater Perth Metropolitan Region, in the Shire of Mundaring. It is about an hour's drive from the CBD along the recently up-graded Great Eastern Highway.

We can accommodate 20 people comfortably in two chalets, in almost new single beds in double bedrooms, with air-conditioning and heating. Another 4 people can be accommodated, somewhat less comfortably, in The Old Cottage, and an extra (folding) bed may be put in six of the chalets' bedrooms, giving a total of 30. A room schedule is enclosed with details.

Hilltop is, however, a working farm and therefore the land, its fencing and landscaping, is somewhat rough. The whole property is about 20 hectares (50 acres), internal roads are all gravel, and children must be supervised at all times to prevent them from interfering with farm work or having accidents.

Most of the groups who use our premises are spiritually-inclined, such as meditation and yoga classes, circle dancers, church groups, and health enthusiasts, all of whom find our domed hall perfect for their activities. However, we are also happy to welcome other groups who may not require use of the dome, such as family reunions, wedding parties, sewing and scrap-booking groups, canoe-ists, and so on.
